

We should do all that we can to ensure that the rights of independent expression are not unfairly limited and that the media in this country is not controlled by just a few large entities more interested in entertainment and/or special interests than real objective news reporting.